For those members of the Wesleyan community, 1977-78 will remain in boundless memories as one round eternal year. This year, like all others, is a separate entity, a sphere unto itself; yet, even though divided from other years, this year was invaluable in uniting individuals through the spirit of Wesleyan.

1977-78 will live on forever in the minds of those of us who have grown, sharing the good times and the bad. We have seen gains and losses, births and deaths, successes and failures. In losing, we have discovered the value of community effort; in someone's dying, we have somehow grown more full in our shared loss; in failing, we have learned the meaning of success.

Perhaps it is because of these failures and losses that we have reached out to one another in an attempt to achieve the unity portrayed by the circling point — an ever-changing perimeter which encourages both individual differences and community growth.

Welcome to a circle of the memories of a year: friends of today, of yesterday; those whom we love and have loved; the experiences that led us to where — and who — we are.

All circling point
All cent'ring sphere
The world's one round, eternal year
— Richard Crenshaw

And God stepped out on space,
And He looked around and said,
"I'm lonely —
I'll make me a world."
— James Weldon Johnson

There's a land of rolling mountains
Where the sky is blue above;
And though I may roam I hurry home
To the friendly hills I love,

Where the moonlit meadows ring
With the call of whipporwills,
Always you will find me
In my home among the hills.

And where the sun draws rainbows in the mist
Of waterfalls and mountain rills,
My heart will be always
In the West Virginia hills.

There autumn hillsides are bright with scarlet trees;
And in the spring the robins sing,
While apple blossoms whisper in the breeze.

And there is music in the flashing streams,
And joy in fields of daffodils,
Laughter though the happy valleys
Of my home among the hills.
— E. W. James

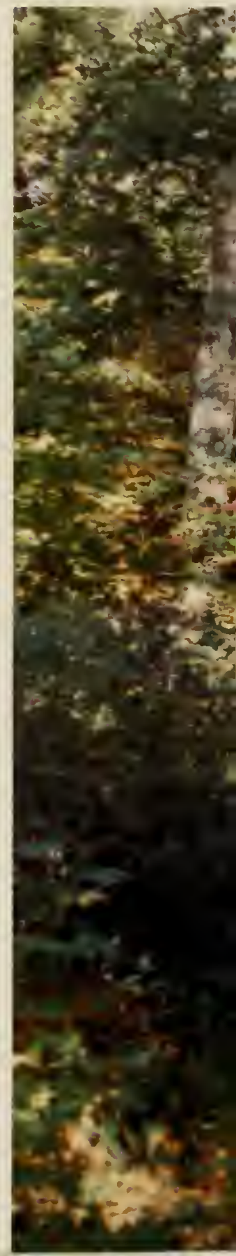
— William Wordsworth

WEST VIRGINIA
WESLEYAN

O brave new world,
That has such people in't!
— William Wordsworth



Lord, I do fear
Thou'st made the world too beautiful
this year.
— Edna St.
Vincent
Millay

A thing of beauty is a joy forever:
Its loveliness increases;
it will never Pass into nothingness; but still will keep
A bower quiet for us, and a sleep
Full of sweet dreams, and health, and quiet breathing.

— Keats

Snow upon snow upon snow . . . Wesleyan and most of the eastern United States fell under snow storms about five days apart for several weeks. Although most of the precipitation came during the January term, there was plenty of deep snow remaining to greet students' arrival return.

All sorts of things and weather
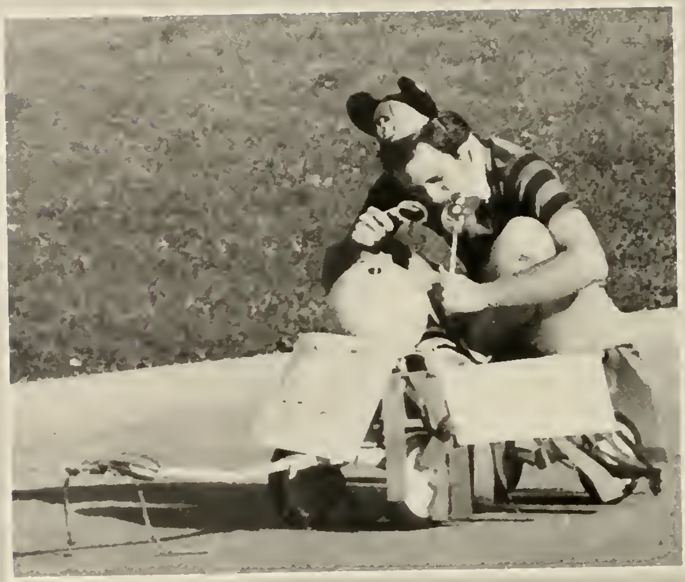
Must be taken in together,
To make up a year
And a sphere.
— Emerson Fable

Thou has no sorrow in thy song,
No winter in thy year.
— John Logan



The children of this world are in their generation wiser than the children of light.
— Luke 16:8

The youth of America is their oldest tradition. It has been going on now for three hundred years.

— Oscar Wilde

Wherever you are it is your own friends who make your world.

— William James

ONE ROUND ETERNAL YEAR OF FACULTY/ADMINISTRATION

HELLO FRED . . .

Once again Wesleyan hails a new chief. Our loss and gain of presidents is second only to the freshman attrition rate. This time, however, it looks as though Wesleyan has struck gold.

. . . GOODBYE CHUCK

Dr. Emery started his career here at Wesleyan, in the fall of 1959, as a member of the freshman class. The 1963 yearbook read: EMERY, CHARLES, Buckhannon, B.S., Phys. Ed.; Theta Chi, Football, Golf. But 1963 did not end his relationship with Wesleyan. In 1971 Emery returned as Dean of Men, served as Acting Dean of Students in 1973, and, in 1974, was named Dean of Students.

The administrative staff, here at Wesleyan, is a group composed of individuals who keep Wesleyan running. Their jobs cover a wide spectrum, some being directly involved with students while others are indirectly involved. A few administrators are concerned with introducing Wesleyan to you and creating an interest in Wesleyan within you. Then there are those that govern and guide your college career, creating the means for you to reach the end. Finally, after you have left Wesleyan, there are those on the staff that keep in contact with you and keep you in contact with Wesleyan.

ONE ROUND ETERNAL YEAR OF TRADITIONS

Students Choose Diane Baker as Queen

Alumni — Excitement: the perfect description of Homecoming 1977 at WVWC. From Friday to Saturday night, Wesleyan, the community of Buckhannon, and numerous alumni enjoyed the many activities traditional to homecoming.

The festivities began Friday, October 21, with the Founder's Day Convocation at which Dr. Fred Harris was inaugurated as Wesleyan's fourteenth president. That night, one could have heard a pin drop at the coronation at which time the 1977 queen was announced. An elementary education major from Pittsburgh, Pa., Diane Baker was elected by the student body to reign as WVWC's 1977 homecoming queen. Her court consisted of Joyce Reneau, Amy Rossiter, Sue Smyth, Lindi Gruner, Meg Risinger, Anne Talbot, and Jenny Berry.

Saturday morning loomed bright and beautiful, ideal weather for the parade made up of numerous floats, comical acts, bands, and administrators riding in cars. At 1:30 that afternoon, the Bobcat football squad had a close encounter with Salem. Unfortunately, the Tigers came out on top with a score of 14-13. Last, but by no means least, came the concert, featuring warm-up band Smoke and starring Starbuck.

Winners of the awards were as follows: floats — Theta Chi, first for fraternity float and Alpha Delta Pi, first for sorority float; banners — Theta Xi, first for fraternity banner, Alpha Xi Delta, first for sorority banner, and Fleming Hall, first for dorm banner.

Queen Diane Baker and her escort, Chip Butler.

The Homecoming court makes their annual ride down the streets of Buckhannon aboard the Freshman class float.

"And now for my next trick . . ."

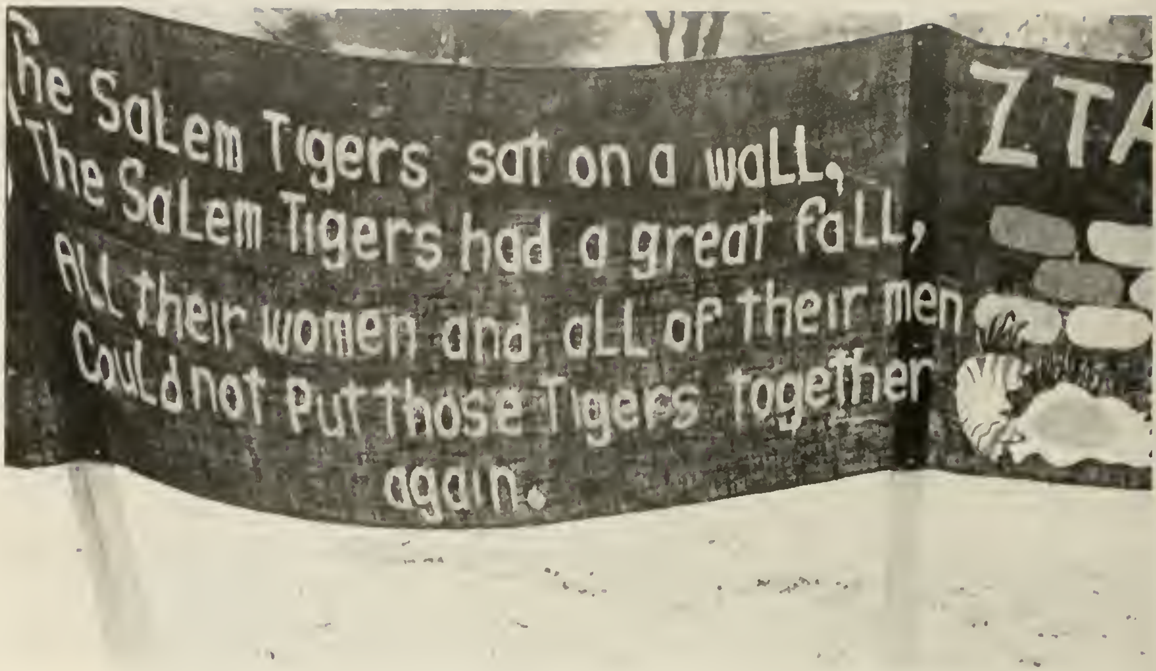
Alpha Gamma Delta sisters truly bring out the homecoming theme: The World as Seen Through the Eyes of a Child.

Theta Xi's "King for a Day"!

And you thought libraries were just for reading! . . .

Phi Sigma Epsilon . . . Choking Chickens???

Touchdown! Six Points! for Alpha Xi Delta.



The Salem Tigers sat on a wall,
The Salem Tigers had a great fall,
All their women and all of their men
Could not put those Tigers together again.
ZTA

The ZTA poet has struck again!

Rocky's no. 1 and no. 2!

Many friendships were renewed at the picnic lunch following the parade.

IT'S NOT A FANTASY SO
SALEM OUT TO SEA!!
16

"It's not a fantasy, so Salem out to sea" proclaims Captain Hook and his pirates, winning Fleming first place in the dorm competition.

Eat your hearts out, Commodores, here comes Smoke!

Don Patterson, Ross Taplett, and David Callahan converse during the Homecoming picnic.

Fred Harris Presides as Fourteenth President

Twelfth President of WVWC and present Governor of West Virginia, Jay Rockefeller, for whom the gym was named, and Dr. Capitan, Vice President for Academic Affairs.

Dr. Harris officially becomes Wesleyan's 14th president as Bishop Frederick D. Wertz presents him the president's medallion.

Mrs. Hallam, associate professor of mathematics and William A. Hallam, professor emeritus, who taught math and physics, and for whom the Hallam Classroom/Laboratory is named.

Relatives of Agnes Howard, who was fatally stricken by a sudden illness while a student at Wesleyan, gather in remembrance. Agnes Howard Hall, the oldest building on campus, is named for her.

Mrs. Christine McCuskey Conley and John McCuskey, relatives of Dr. Roy McCuskey for whom McCuskey Hall is named.

Upon Founder's Day we renew our allegiance to the past and at the same time face the untrodden fields of the future. No institution springs into existence full-grown. West Virginia Wesleyan owes a debt of gratitude greater than we can ever pay to the idealism, the loyalty, and the sacrifice of those who have gone before. The very mention of their names gives us a renewed sense of inspiration, hope, and dedication. We are indeed encompassed by clouds of witnesses. The thought of what they meant to their generation and to us who follow in their train causes us to resolve to stand more firmly for the eternal principles which underlie all of life and also to keep the windows of our minds open to new light and new truth. May the developments of our future truly fulfill the expectations of our noble past — Lewis H. Chrisman.

Twins? Dr. Stanley H. Martin, eleventh president of WVWC, and Fred E. Harris, fourteenth president of WVWC.

Hanging of Greens Ushers in Christmas

Archie Robinson aids in the Hanging of the Greens ceremony by placing a sprig of ivy in the wreath.

Setting the mood for the Hanging of the Greens ceremony, the Chapel Choir, under the direction of Larry Parsons, performs several meaningful works.

Christmas!! At Last!!

The Hanging of the Greens ceremony, being practiced every year for the last ten years, would, to those who never attend, logically become "old fast." But fortunately, this is definitely not the case.

For the entire Wesleyan community, the Hanging of the Greens signifies the beginning of the Christmas season. Rev. Light of the First United Methodist Church of Buckhannon explains it like this: "In joyous remembrance of the coming of the Lord, and in fervent anticipation of His coming again and again, let us deck the halls, let us hang the green, and let us make room anew for the birth of Jesus Christ, the Word of God, Who is made flesh and dwells among us!"

After hours of hard work by members of the Religious Life Council, Wesley Chapel magically comes alive with garlands and wreaths of pine. Upon entering it, one immediately feels happiness, joy, and love.

The Hanging of the Greens ceremony makes use of a theme of light, beginning with "light foretold," which involves predictions of the birth of Christ. "Light revealed" follows, consisting of stories and carols celebrating His birth. The congregation then sings carols which focus upon the wisemen and the shepherds, emphasizing the "light received." An explanation of the purpose of the greens is made during "light reflected."

Next the greens, holly, ivy, mistletoe, rosemary, and laurel, are individually placed in an advent wreath. The ceremony continues with the tree-lighting ritual in the Chapel Oval. The close of this annual tradition marks the beginning of the Christmas season.

Dean Holmes delivers a message of peace and goodwill at the tree-lighting ceremony.

And the band plays on . . .

For most, sixteen years of education is now a thing of the past — joy at no more books, no more finals, no more classes at 8 a.m. But then the coin flips; we are now out on our own: independent, looking for work We must face the world, athough we may be afraid

We look back at our college life with regret. "I could've passed that exam"; "Why did I goof off so much!" But even though we no longer see our selves as college students, two things will always remain constant. our memories and our friends.

ONE ROUND ETERNAL YEAR OF ACADEMICS

From Orientation to Book-Buying:

For over 500 students, life at Wesleyan began with Freshman Orientation the beginning of September. The freshmen were divided into groups and then toured the campus, registered, bought books, and did all the other things that must be done to start school.

But despite all the hassles, the fall semester of 1977 began as scheduled at West Virginia Wesleyan College.

For the freshmen, orientation means waiting and waiting in lines . . .

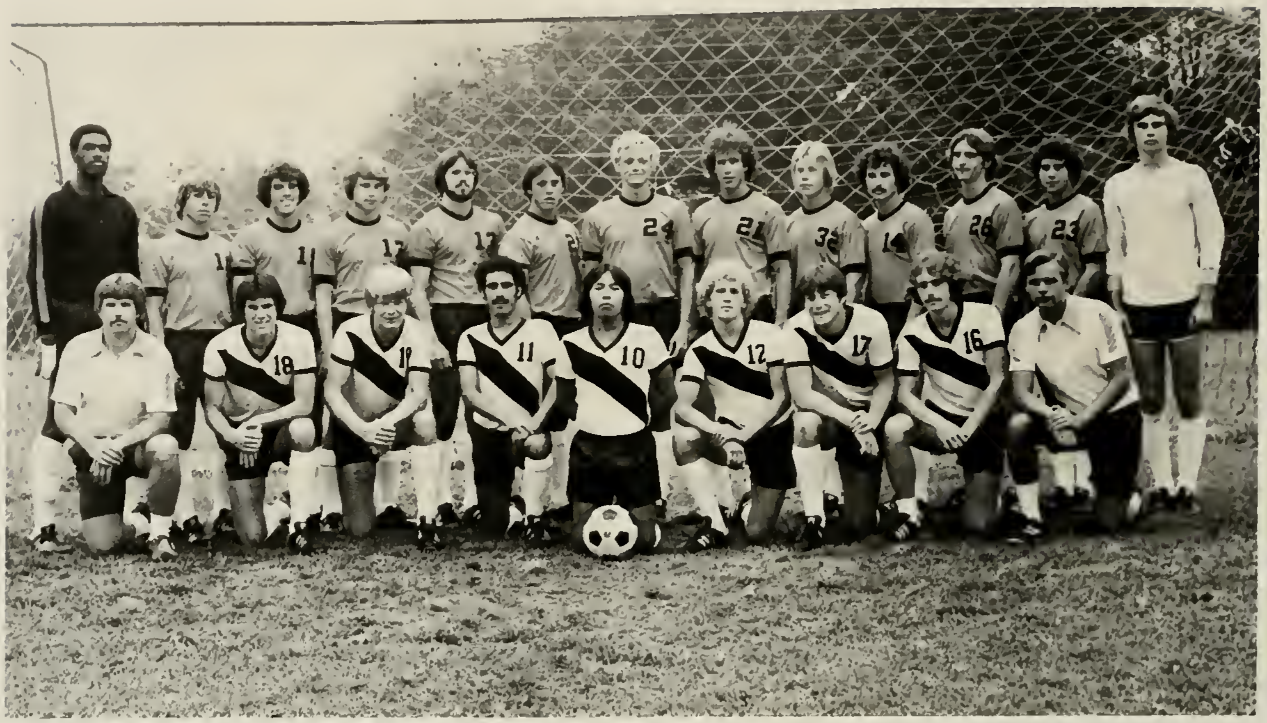
ONE ROUND ETERNAL YEAR OF SPORTS

Major Victories Mark Successful Season



First Row: Assistant coach Mike Coulter, B. Edwards, C. Moore, R. Hernandez, B. Beruskin, M. Wagner, K. Brand, M. Johnson, Head coach George Klebez. Second Row: R. Middleton, B. Sanders, M. Offredi, P. Smith, T. Fullowan, P. Dellamo, B. McConnell, H. McGowan, C. Conover, S. Bene, D. Harper, B. Bressler, D. Richards.

Wesleyan's soccer squad posted its sixth consecutive winning season with a 6-4-2 slate. Among the victories for Coach George Klebez's squad were 1-0 and 3-0 wins over West Virginia University and Ohio University. It was the second straight win for the Cats over the Mountaineers, after failing in 16 previous tries. The orange and black also tied conference powerhouse Davis and Elkins 0-0 in overtime, marking the first time since 1967 that the Senators had not beaten the Bobcats. Senior Marty Johnson earned all-conference honors for the fourth time and finished his career with 41 goals, second on the all time scoring list. Senior fullbacks Pete Dellomo and Howard McGowan and junior halfback Mike Wagner were second team selections to the All WVIAC team.

Harriers Elapse to Third Place in WVIAC

Anthony Marcucci, Tom Elmore, Jeff Findle, Richard Ingraham, Jim Newman, Scott Miller, Gerry Murphy, Brian Murphy, Bill Richardson, Coach Hank Ellis.

Wesleyan's cross country squad concluded its season with a third place finish in the WVIAC meet and the team championship at the Morris Harvey Invitational. It was a rebuilding year for Coach Hank Ellis and his harriers, who showed constant improvement throughout the year.

Sophomore Gerry Murphy, an All-Conference performer in 1976 was the Bobcats leading performer. Junior Brian Murphy, sophomore Richard Ingraham, senior Jeff Findle and freshman Scott Miller were consistent performers for the Cats.

Other formidable competitors included freshmen Anthony Marcucci and Tom Elmore, senior Bill Richardson and junior Jim Newman.

Findle and Richardson captained the squad.

Women Continue Winning Ways

The field hockey team posted its third consecutive winning season and second place finish in the state with a 5-3-1 slate. The Bobcats again had to play second fiddle to Davis and Elkins, the perennial state champion, but did post significant wins over Muskingum, Ohio University, Washington and Jefferson, Marietta, and Frostburg State.

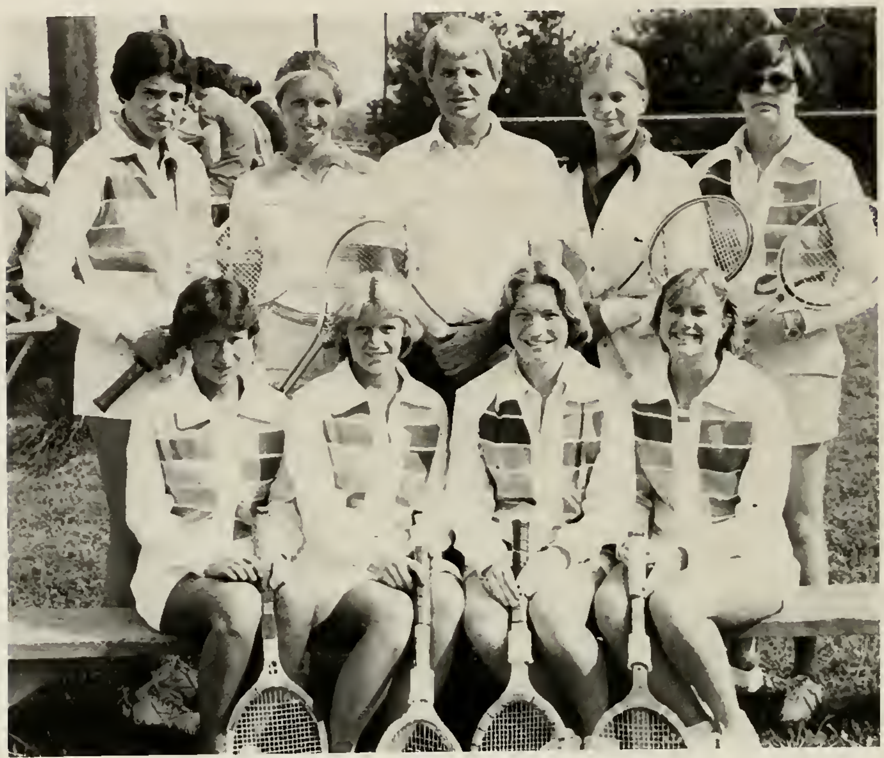
Women Post Best Season in History



First Row: Cindy Ludwig, Linda Spears, Sue Thompson, Linda Manhardt. Second Row: Betty Cook, Sue Moomau, Coach Ross, Jill Bergman, Cindy Fisher.

The women's tennis team continued its improvement posting a 7-3-0 record and finishing fourth in the WVIAA Tennis Tournament. It was the best season in the school's history. Sophomore Linda Spears had an outstanding season and combined with her older sister Susan to form one of the premier doubles combinations in the state. Other top performances were turned in by freshman Betty Cook, junior Cindy Fisher, and seniors Susan Thompson, Robin Davis, Linda Manhardt, and Cindy Ludwig.

Cats Streak to Success in Conference Upset

The losing finally ended as Wesleyan's suffering football program reversed itself to take the WVIAC Northern Division crown. Losing seasons had plagued the Cats for over a decade but 1977 proved to be a glorious 7-3-0 campaign to make the orange and black the talk of the state.

When the season began in September none expected big things of Wesleyan. But the season's close saw the squad in ninth place in the NAIA Division II ratings and boasting three honorable mention All-Americans in linebacker Danny Williams, defensive tackle Chris Patella and running back Rich Thomaselli.

The heartbreaking Coal Bowl defeat at the hands of Concord was no disgrace. All season the Cats showed a grim determination typified in the nail-biting win over West Virginia Tech when Kirby, Salmons and Thomaselli conbined in a match winning play in the dying seconds of the game — one of the most dramatic finishes in college football in 1977.

Williams, Patella and Thomaselli were all first team All-Conference selections while Gary Hawkins and Ron Jenkins were awarded honorable mention status.

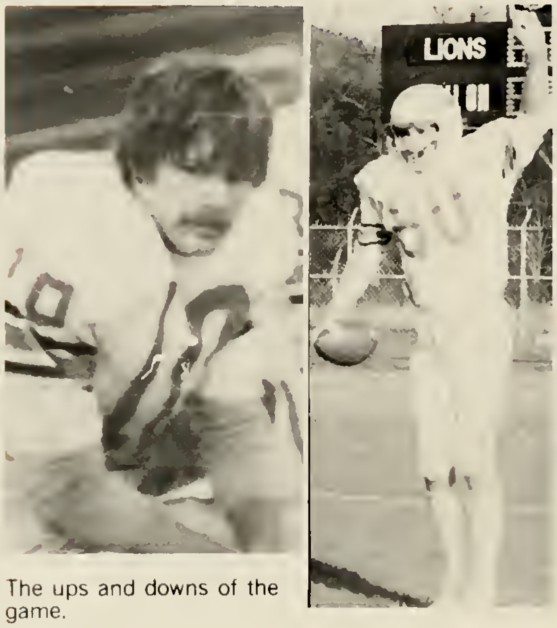
Cinderella Cats Strike Coal



The ups and downs of the game.

The final score was Concord 33 Wesleyan 17, a seemingly easy win for the nationally ranked Mountain Lions. Those who thought that way obviously were not in Summersville November 19 for the annual Coal Bowl. The contest matched the powerful and defending champion Mountain Lions against an upstart cinderella Bobcat squad. The Cats' defense met the opposition by contributing the first 7 points by freshman Bill Klenk's interception and made possible the remaining 10 points with fumble recoveries led by the Most Outstanding Defensive Player Danny Williams. After three quarters, the Mountain Lions had closed the gap to one point trailing 17-16. After some questionable ball placement by the officials, Concord booted a 30 yard field goal with 2:40 remaining in the game to give them a 19-17 lead. The Mountain Lions put the game away with two scores in the final minute after the Cats gave up the pigskin on loss of downs and an interception. Still, the contest was a tough one for both squads. While Concord emerged as the champion, Wesleyan had proved to the state that they had returned to power in football.

Lady Cats Leap Forward In Record-Breaking Season

Women's basketball saw a dramatic upshoot with an outstanding 18-3 slate — the best record of any Wesleyan sports team this year. The rise was especially significant in view of the fact that they had never won more than six games in a season before 1978.

Bobcats posted a 16-2 regular season record for second place in the WVIAA, their only defeats coming from W.V.U. and Morris Harvey. Freshmen Betty Cook, Jayne Smith, Annette Wiseman and Kelly Geary and junior transfer Janice Evans gave home-grown Libby Bush plenty of help and in spite of their inexperience the Cats jelled early and blitzed many schools by as much as 50 points.

Records crashed all season with Betty Cook setting a new season points high with 430, Jayne Smith pouring in 38 points against Concord to set a new game high.

Bill Thomas and Don Filip display the hard-earned WVIAC Tournament trophy Wesleyan captured under Coach Gary Hess.

Hopes for a place in the NAIA Tournament again slipped through Wesleyan's fingers as they took the WVIAC Tournament title only to lose in the cliffhanger playoffs against Fairmont for the second year running.

The Falcons won the first play-off game 73-47 as the orange and black suffered through its worst performance of the season at the Marion County Armory. When the stage was shifted to the Rockefeller Center, Coach Gary Hess' squad was ready for revenge. The Cats were spectacular before the hometown fans, and breezed to a 92-82 win over Fairmont behind Mark Davis's unbelievable 31 point performance. Game three was played at the West Virginia University Coliseum at Morgantown where Fairmont prevailed in one of the best games played in the state the entire year. Despite the loss, Wesleyan had a most successful season, finishing third in the conference.

The outstanding tournament performances led to the selection of John Bates, Bill Thomas and Mike Williams to the all-tourney-team, while Williams also received the Commissioner's Heart and Hustle award. Sophomore Jim Brogan earned the Sportsmanship Trophy.

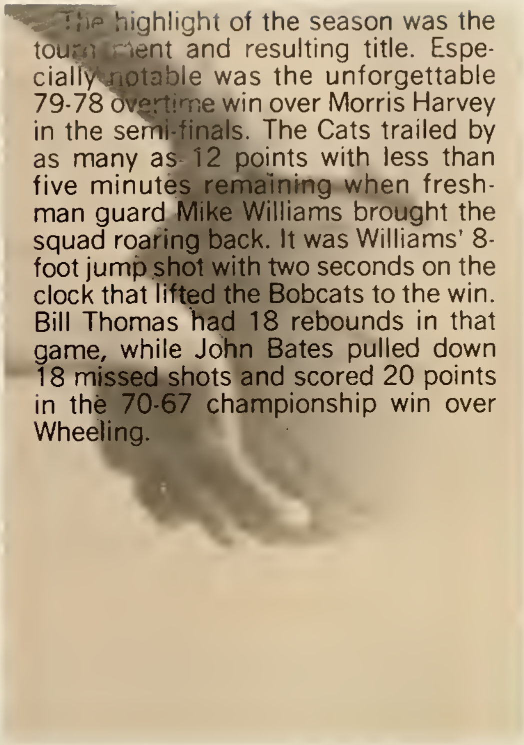
Fur and Feathers Fly

Wesleyan's fans react joyously to Fairmont's repeated coaching technicals, already claiming a # 1 status.



The highlight of the season was the tournament and resulting title. Especially notable was the unforgettable 79-78 overtime win over Morris Harvey in the semi-finals. The Cats trailed by as many as 12 points with less than five minutes remaining when freshman guard Mike Williams brought the squad roaring back. It was Williams' 8-foot jump shot with two seconds on the clock that lifted the Bobcats to the win. Bill Thomas had 18 rebounds in that game, while John Bates pulled down 18 missed shots and scored 20 points in the 70-67 championship win over Wheeling.

John Bates overpowers a Falcon center to give Wesleyan the initial offensive power they used so effectively.

Senior Don Filip carefully considers his offensive strategy.

Mike Williams goes to the hoop for two in a successful effort to pluck the Falcons 92-82 in the second game between the two Kansas City hopefuls.

Sam Ross's women's track squad concluded another successful spring, capturing second place in the WVIAA Track Meet. The squad had several state champions and shattered many of the previous school records.

Sophomore transfer Tyann Bitetti was one of the keys to Wesleyan's success, winning the 440 dash and helping the 440 Relay and Mile Relay teams capture first place finishes. Bitetti was joined by Joyce Hawk, Zoe Gingerich, and Sally Large in the 440 relay, while Lynelle Lewis, Gingerich, and Diane Morgan teamed with Bitetti in the mile relay.

Sophomore Lori Mickle had another fine spring and captured the mile run, while freshman Sara Speegle placed second in the 3 mile and 2 mile run. Other top performances were recorded by juniors Debbie Hall, Jill O'Connell, Jill Bergmann, and Debbie MacWilliams, sophomores Sally Large, Kay Cunningham, and Eileen Shea, and freshmen Betty Cook, Julie Barnhart, Dee Dee Donnelly, and Jenny Berry.

The Bobcat tennis squad had an outstanding season with a glossy 10-2 record and third place finish in the WVIAC. Coach George Klebez's squad showed tremendous improvement from the previous spring, and was a serious challenger for the conference title the entire season.

Freshman John Humes won the number four singles championship to earn all-conference honors, while senior Ed Kroupa lost a tough decision in the number two singles finals.

Other top performances were turned in by senior Andy Thomas, juniors Parke Wolfe, Don Fleming, and David Leach, and sophomores Chuck Shaheen and John Hart.

Coach Hank Ellis' baseball squad went through a rebuilding season in 1978, posting a 9-18 slate. The squad lost six of seven outings in Florida, and were never able to get close to the .500 mark. However, the Cats posed several problems for conference teams, and did defeat arch rival Davis and Elkins, Morris Harvey, and Glenville State.

Lafferty led the pitching staff, but was capably backed up by freshman southpaws Jim Warner and Bob Koepka. Lafferty and Scott Koepka were the only seniors on the squad, thus giving Wesleyan fans plenty to look forward to for next season.

Wesleyan's track squad, under the direction of Bob Braine, finished third in the WVIAC for the second consecutive season. The squad was small in numbers, but had several outstanding individual performances to make the season a success.

Senior Tim Jergel captured the pole vault, while junior Gerry Murphy won the 1500 meter run. Murphy took second in the 5000 meter run, while Rich Thomaselli placed second in the shot put. Senior Pete Merck and freshman Randy Orsburn took second and third place finishes in the high jump, while Wade Kosis, Scott McCall, Kevin Witt, and Brian Murphy finished in the top six in other events to round out the scoring.

The Bobcats' best performance of the season came in the Wesleyan Invitational where they finished second in a six team field.

Wesleyan's golf squad finished fourth in the WVIAC for the second consecutive season. However Coach John Myers had plenty to be happy about because of the play of senior Tim Olsen. Olsen was the low medalist in the conference and advanced to the NAIA Golf Tournament in Texas. In addition he earned all-conference honors for the fourth time in his outstanding career.

The Bobcats' best performance came early in the spring when they captured the Southern Regional Golf Tournament at Pipestem State Park.

Other top golfers for Myers' squad included junior Jay Robinson, sophomores Scott Musick and Bill Gaston, and freshman Brad Fenlon.

A Walk to the Chapel

After a week or so of rushing — an endless process of getting dressed up, going to parties, constantly smiling, and hopefully being invited back, that never seems to end — the big day comes, sororities take pledges. Who will take quota? Who won't? The question is soon answered as the rushees wait patiently in the lounge of Agnes Howard Hall. Each sorority room holds its color-coded sisters awaiting the arrival of a runner who holds the list of "who took who." As the actives get psyched for their new little sisters, the rushees are handed their bids — the formal invitation. In the distance they hear familiar chants, songs that immediately identify which Greek organization is there. Soon all four sororities surround Aggie. Out of each door comes one or two sisters followed by the new pledge class. There are no more rushees now — only pledges. Pledges that, after taking a walk to the chapel, begin learning what it is to be a sister.

The Waiting Game

Fraternities have reduced the rushing process to the simplest of terms. As a rushee, your task is simple: show your interest in a particular frat by attending his smoker, sign your name, pay the rushing fee and introduce yourself to the brothers. The only thing left to do is wait . . . until bid night.

As a brother, it's a matter of procedure. Go to the smoker, meet the rushees, and vote. Then you wait, until bid night, when you gather together, march to campus, chanting as you go from dorm to dorm, first Jenkins, then the quad: Doney and Fleming, passing out bids as you go, a door to door service. And when you've finished? You wait.

When the Waiting Ends

The last hour of the wait seems the longest. The brothers are assembled at the house, getting psyched, the new pledges will be here any minute. You'll take them to the SCOW, show off to the campus, but you've got to get ready to greet them now, 'cause they'll be here any minute . . . any minute you'll hear them coming. As the minutes go by you wonder . . . how many will accept the bid? . . . will any? . . . what if none do? You try to stay psyched and then you hear them, they're singing your song — They're going your way! As you greet each of your new brothers, the waiting ends. Although this seems like the end, it's a beginning. The beginning of pledging, of carrying coffins, of scavenger hunts, of line-ups . . . of becoming a brother.

Nobody Did It Better
Gams Take Greek Week

There could not have been a more surprising victory, as the Alpha Gams, in the American dream fashion, proved champions in the 1978 Greek Week events. After starting in last place, and staying there for the majority of the week, the Alpha Gam sorority pulled together for a startling come-back. A week of not placing gave way to first place after first place. Saturday night brought spring sing and the Gams maintained dignity for all Greeks as they placed third in the women's division. The next day followed with the track events, possibly the Gams best area, after which they were tied with A.D.Pi. The week ended with the traditional tug-of-war. In the center of spectators, cheering on their preferred side, the Pis and Gams each pulled for first place. After a few minutes of intense struggling the Gams proved victorious, clenching the event and the week.

While the Gams came from behind to conquer Greek Week, the Zips seemed to take command from the start, conquering each event as they went. Finally, their victory in the bed race seemed to announce that they were headed to take it all. Theta Xi's showing in Greek Week was second only to their performance in Spring Sing. Appearing suited, minus trousers, and singing two original songs, the brothers placed third behind an independent group and Phi Sig Epsilon.

When all the events are over it is traditional for the winning frat and the winning sorority to celebrate together. And so it was this year when Theta Xi hosted the Alpha Gams for a victory party . . . but, as the Theta Xi house sounded with Gam and Zip cheers, back on campus there was already talk of next year and the next Greek Week.

Greeks Clean-Up . . .

Although it was billed as a campus-wide event Greeks seemed to be the only members of the campus community that cared enough to show up. The spring clean-up consisted of spreading new grass seeds, painting trash cans and fire hydrants, picking up trash in general, and a contest to see who could collect the most cigarette butts. Headed by newly elected community council president Mike Aloi, the clean-up was sponsored by Community Council, IFC and Panhel.

WESLEYAN AND THE WORLD

Murmurmontis, May 20, 1978

To briefly explain, we worked in the Lincolnshire Social Services as Student Social Workers. We were, each of us, under a qualified Social Worker who assisted us in our cases, but by no means dictated what we should do. Each week there was an allocation meeting at which time we received new cases which we alone were responsible for. These cases ranged from lonely older people to children who were in trouble with the police. As Social Workers we were responsible for visiting people, assessing the situation, keeping case notes as well as follow-up visits when necessary. Another responsibility we had was to keep a daily journal of our work experiences; this we then turned in to Mr. Taplin.

Another aspect of our work as Student Social Workers was our involvement in the Rainbow Club, which is for mentally retarded adults.

As you will find in anything you do, there will be advantages and disadvantages. If we were to even begin listing the advantages it would surely take up too much room. One thing though, our work experience was SO valuable. We received the proper amount of supervision yet along with that we were independent. Disadvantages to studying abroad are few and far between.

We have enclosed some photos, since we were lucky enough to travel quite a bit.

Thank you for your interest,
Sally Watson,

THE OLD RECTORY
HOME OF THE WESLEYS

Jocelyn Crabtree, Kim Campbell and Sally Watson spent second semester in a cottage located at 3 Oak Hill, Washingborough, Lincoln, England. While in England they not only acquired some valuable job experiences but also did some sightseeing. One such sightseeing outing brought them to "The Old Rectory", birthplace of John Wesley, the founder of the Methodist religion and the namesake of West Virginia Wesleyan College. These Wesleyan students also visited some other world known places such as: Notre Dame, Loch Ness, and Trafalgar Square. But, possibly, the greatest education is obtained by exposure to the people that occupy these places. One such person was Mr. Benson, their British supervisor.

JANUARY TERM 1978: STUDY, SAND, AND SUN

Boca Raton, Florida was the scene for sun, sand, and study for 150 students and 10 faculty members during one of the coldest, snowiest months of winter. The main campus was closed because of fuel shortage and as an experiment Wesleyan offered transportation, classes, credit, and recreation in the sunny south.

Boca Raton, a two-year school, offers space to many groups during the winter months. Florida Atlantic University graciously offered the remaining spaces necessary to complete adequate housing for all of our students. Each campus offered a different environment and atmosphere than the home surroundings.

The change of pace for Wesleyan students was especially shown in the beach life. Generally students believed it was terrific, a little cool and cloudy at times, but a definite improvement over the below freezing temperatures up north.

Social life revolved around the disco scene in Ft. Lauderdale just fifteen minutes away. Faculty cooperated by driving cars and vans to the entertainment areas on a daily basis. Other areas of travel involved trips to Disney World, the Everglades, the Florida Keys, Miami, and West Palm Beach.

Social interaction between students and faculty was especially good on the Boca Raton campus where all faculty were housed right in the dormitory with students and were available for study help or for a ride to town. Faculty were especially understanding of the opportunities available and helped in arranging classes and study time accordingly.

Courses from short fiction to tropical plants offered a variety of choices for any interest. In fact, the experiment was so successful that 150 are reserved for next January for more study, sand, and sun.

COLLEGE of BOCA RATON

Bill Richardson's generosity is graciously accepted by Pompano Beach's resident seagulls. Top Right: Boca Raton's beach offered more than merely swimming to Jim Berry and fellow Wesleyan students. Lower Right: Ron Metz along with Theta Chi brothers are impressed with a classmate's superior suntan.

Certified scubadivers Jeff Rumplik and James Gervasoni had the distinct opportunity to apply their skills in the Atlantic Ocean while at Boca Raton. The students were certified from a scubadiving course given by Wesleyan's physical education department.

Boca Raton's area beaches such as scenic Pompano Beach offered a variety to Wesleyan students seeking a change for their sunbathing pleasure.

Epilogue

When is the yearbook coming?

Traditionally the yearbook comes in the fall of each year, and it covers the previous school year.

Traditionally the yearbook is compiled in an ongoing process during the school year.

Traditionally the school year lasts only nine months with three scheduled breaks each about two weeks, not extended breaks for gas shortages.

Tradition also shows that a good yearbook is only the result of a good, committed staff. If for some reason the staff disintegrates then the yearbook will fail too.

It is now the time to break with many of the traditions and to enjoy remembering a special tradition; the annual reflection on the past nonfulfillments and triumphs that are captured in a yearbook. But the 1978 MURMURMONTIS is breaking several traditions. A yearbook should prove that a job has been completed and not just fill up an abstract period of time. This completion is the most important consideration, as they say . . . if one does a job at all, he should do it right. And finally a dedicated staff will be those who do not quit and sees that the job gets done.

Thanks to those who helped do this job right; not to those who did not and since those who helped the way they did, we now have the finished product. Enjoy and cherish the 1978 MURMURMONTIS — it is worth it.
